

Easter Means You Are FREE!

by By the staff of A WORD for Women

Inspired by the recent Broken Hearted Mother devotions, our ministry is committed to help shine the Light in the darkness of internet pornography on a continual basis. We can't think of a more perfect time to throw out a life line than on Easter when the world woke up in spiritual freedom.

If you are sinking in the deep waters of porn, you need to remember Who walked on water and calmed the storm.

Jesus' scarred hands are right there to pull you out so grab on! He saved you from drowning by claiming your sins as His own and nailing them into His hands. He knew the devil would use every dirty lie he could conjure to lure you further into the deep. He knew of your need for rescue before time began and planned accordingly.

Let the anniversary of our Redeemer's victory declaration, "It is finished." be the beginning of your fresh start. Spit out the polluted water in your heart, confess your weakness, throw the devil's handiwork at the foot of the cross and run to the empty tomb. Meet the rest of your rescued family who welcome you with open arms and remind you that "Christ is risen!" You can shout with joy, "He is risen indeed!" I am FREE!

Don't fear the repercussions of your actions. They are nothing compared to the Glory that awaits you! As your spiritual family, we are here to help pick up the pieces. There is now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus.

As part of this journey together, we are highlighting a new ministry dedicated to serving you in your struggle. Dear brothers and sisters, you can help by telling us your story of struggle, of victory or of loving a person caught in this trap. You can also help by connecting to this fledgling ministry through social media and linking it in your websites. To keep silent is to let the devil win—we will never give him the satisfaction.

Conquerors through Christ is a Gospel-based ministry made up of people whose mission is to give spiritual and practical advice to Christians struggling to overcome adult internet pornography. Take the first step on your road to recovery and go to Conquerors through Christ . In the coming months we will explore the information they have available to defeat this addiction.

Until next time, our prayers stay with you.

What, then, shall we say in response to these things? If God is for us, who can be against us? He who did not spare his own Son, but gave him up for us all—how will he not also, along with him, graciously give us all things? No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. Romans 8:31-32, 37.
